4. Make sure you are enrolled in a full course load in SIS. A full course load is at least 12 credits for undergraduate students and 9 credits for most graduate students. PhD students may achieve a full course load with 6 credits + RA/TA/GA enrollment.

5. If you need a Social Security Number because you have an on-campus job, you can find instructions here: <https://icenter.tufts.edu/practical-matters/social-security/>. New students MUST complete the above steps before starting the SSN application procedure.

6. Contact your International Center Advisor or internationalcenter@tufts.edu if you have any questions.
